

Addendum to FHT&L Internship regulations

For study year 2020-2021 and 2021-2022

To go with: paragraph 3.5 Conditions of admission

On May 25 2020, as a result of the current situation with regards to COVID-19, the examination board decided to change the requirements for internships that start in September as follows:

You will be permitted to take part in an internship if you meet the following requirements:

1. You have a positive binding study advice for year 1, including 30 credits for semester 1; or, if no study advice has been issued because of COVID-19, you at least meet the requirements for it.
2. You have obtained at least 20 credits of semester 3, including the project.
3. You have obtained at least 10 credits of semester 4.

On July 21 2020 the examination board furthermore decided to change the requirements for internships starting in february 2021 as follows:

You will be permitted to take part in an internship if you meet the following requirements:

1. You have a positive binding study advice for year 1, including 30 credits of semester 1 and including the project(s) of semester 2; or, if no study advice has been issued because of COVID-19, you at least meet the requirements for it.
2. You have obtained at least 20 credits of semester 3, including the project.
3. You have obtained a minimum of 10 credits of semester 4.

On March 31 2021 the Management and the examination board decided to adjust the above mentioned 2020 requirements for the internship in autumn 2021 as follows:

You will be permitted to take part in an internship if you meet the following requirements:

1. You have a positive binding study advice for year 1, including 30 credits for semester 1;
2. You have obtained at least 20 credits of semester 3, including the project.
3. You have obtained at least 10 credits of semester 4.
