

ABOUT ERASMUS+

You might know Erasmus+ as programme for:

- Scholarships for Fontys students that go abroad for at least 2 months (minor study abroad, internship abroad, graduation project abroad)

New:

- From 2022 the BIPs is a new possibility within the funding possibilities of Erasmus+ for short-term projects abroad.

DEFINITION

- Blended Intensive Programs (BIPS) are jointly developed modules for groups of students from at least 3 universities, from at least 3 countries.
- BIPs use innovative and digital ways (e.g. challenged based learning, research based learning etc).
- Theme related to UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDG's) or societal challenges.

DEFINITION

- BIP mobilities are short-term in comparison to regular Erasmus+ semester mobilities.
- Opportunities for students that do not have the chance to go abroad for long-term. For example if semester abroad is not possible in the study field or if due to personal reasons of the student.
- Blended, meaning virtual (online) and physical (on location) cooperation.
- The virtual component can be before or after physical component, or both before and after.

CONDITIONS

- Physical component: 5 – 30 days abroad.
- Virtual component: no specified duration.
- Full-time workload for participants.
- Student aim to get at least 3 ECTS.

CONDITIONS

- Where? All EU-countries + Iceland, Norway, Turkey, North-Macedonia, Serbia and Liechtenstein.
- Students can have a max. of 360 days Erasmus+ scholarship during their Bachelor studies.
- The BIP days abroad count towards this maximum and should be added to a longer study or internship abroad with Erasmus+ scholarship.
